Was He Skunked?

On Dec. 28th, while passing a lonely spot on the bank of the creek about four miles northeast of the city, Mr J. F. Meacham made a discovery mystery. In a briar patch in a spot remote from the highway crany habitation he found a man's clothes. The puts were old and patched but the drawers appeared to be comparatively new. The coat and shirt were lying near the pants and in the pocket of the former a handerchief was found. The place was a rough and rugged one and could only be reached by came to be in such a place?
